

McMAHON offers expert Technology Consulting Services through professionals who possess expertise and experience in all facets of Information Technology (IT)...expertise and experience that can address security and operations needs by working collaboratively with you and your employees. IT is a big, intimidating world and working together, our technology consulting staff can help make it more manageable. In an industry that changes daily, we can be a valuable resource to help IT be a service that makes people and the technology they use, successful.

McMAHON provides the following
Technology Consulting services:

- Hardware and Software Review
- Comprehensive Security Assessments
- Network and Operations Review
- Needs Analysis
- Project Management
- Disaster Recovery and Business Continuity Planning
- Policy Review and Development
- Information Technology Management

