

ARE YOU PREPARED FOR A SITUATION INVOLVING AN ACTIVE ASSAILANT?

Concerns about situations involving active assailants are ever-increasing. Training to be prepared for an incident of this type is important and necessary.

McMahon's security consultants can help.

Our Public Safety and Municipal Management group provides first-class security services, including education and training. Our professionals have experience at high levels of security management including law enforcement, fire, EMS and military personnel and can help your organization feel confident and equipped should a disturbance occur.

Active Assailant Preparedness:

- Learn how to recognize signs of a disturbance
- Educate employees about response mechanisms
- Train with response tactics designed for your specific site
- Improve overall staff confidence / awareness
- Enhance a facility team atmosphere

