

McMAHON's professional staff of consultants has extensive background in areas of Public Safety and Emergency Management. Police, Fire and EMS professionals can rely on us for high-level, independent services that include management counsel, administrative services and coordination of staffing solutions for public safety entities. Our team, having served many years in these professions, understands the issues, challenges, standards and responsibilities of public safety and will offer proven methods to improve efficiency and effectiveness.

Emergency management services include management counsel, operational review, plan development, emergency facility design and setup, training and coordination with local and state entities.

McMAHON provides the following
Public Safety & Emergency Management services:

- Emergency Response Plans
- Emergency Medical Plans
- Emergency Operation Center Analysis
- Management Counsel and Administrative Services
- National Incident Management System (NIMS) Compliance
- Public Safety Equipment Analysis
- Policy & Procedure Analysis
- Risk Management & Analysis
- Service Level Analysis
- Response Time Analysis
- Tactical Training for Law Enforcement
- Planning, Design & Construction of Public Safety Facilities
- Coordination of Paramedic Coverage and Staffing Solutions

